

Building an Effective Leadership Team

Team Building

As a leader, one of your responsibilities is to steer the Body in following God's _____ and _____ for the Church. This is accomplished by modeling it in your own ministry, by _____ for it to happen, and by _____ others to align with God.

Biblical Basis for Teams in Ministry

Just as the varying parts of the human body need each other to best accomplish its works, also the Body of Christ needs to function _____

Like a team (Romans 12:4-8, I Corinthians 12:12-27). God so designed the Church that it _____ and _____ itself up in love, as each part does its work (Ephesians 4:16).

By Following God's design, you will:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Building an Effective Leadership Team

Think about This:

How can you better line up with God's design without losing the uniqueness He built in you?

Biblical Principles to Guide Teamwork

1. _____ and _____ the unique strengths/gifting each member brings to the team and pull on that.
2. Accept _____ of _____ as a valuable asset, not a liability.
3. Assume _____ of servanthood.
4. _____ God in all you do.
5. Align with the _____ and _____ to which you believe God has brought you.

When we follow these Principles you build:

1. _____ centered around the Lord, not what you have in common or because you all agree.
2. _____ based on honesty, not to appease or avoid conflict or manipulate people to one's point of view.
3. _____ aimed at finding what's best, not merely compromising to fit individuals' agendas or get something out of it for one's self.
